Online web based support

Your Personalised website and tour blog

Included as standard with your Living With The Lions tour booking will be a personalised website and blog that will store all relevant tour information during the build up to your tour. While you are away emergency contact details are posted up on the site & parents can stay updated with the tour through the on-tour blog facility.

You will be able to give the link to parents and other staff so they are fully aware of all tour details such as itinerary, touring party, cost inclusions, destination information, important tour information, contact details and an on-tour blog. The structure of this personalised web space is very flexible - we will work with you should you want any other information stored such as kit requirements and meeting arrangements.
